Responsibilities

In the realm of emergency services, the Fire Lieutenant and the personnel over which he/she has supervisory control must be in a state of continual and constant readiness. Because all aspects of emergency service involve the saving of human lives, and to a lesser nature, property, it is fundamental to the position of Fire Lieutenant that all duties and responsibilities are deemed essential at the very least.

Whether under direction of a Fire Captain or higher ranking officer, or acting on his/her own volition, the Fire Lieutenant performs responsible management, technical and administrative work in commanding, supervising, coordinating and performing fire emergency operations, training of firefighters, fire prevention, general facility/equipment maintenance, public education and other related programs and services. The Lieutenant will also be in control of his/her apparatus for the shift he/she is working.

Educational/Experience Requirements

Possession of a high school diploma or GED, or an equivalent combination of education and experience sufficient to successfully perform duties of the position.

Licensing/Certification Requirements

Possession of a valid North Carolina class B driver's license;
Possession of a North Carolina Firefighter certification;
Possession of North Carolina Emergency Medical Technician or higher;
Possession of NIMS 100,200,300,700,800 certifications;
Possession of Emergency Vehicle Driver certification; and Ability to obtain North Carolina Fire Officer I certification within one year of appointment.

Drug Test & Criminal Checks: Candidates shall pass a pre-employment drug screen and criminal history check per criteria set forth by this fire department.

How to Apply

Application packages will be available at the fire station and on the fire departments website: www.lknvfd.org, under the "Recruitment Tab" starting on January 25th at 9am. Interested applicants shall mail their application packet to: P.O. Box 3670 Mooresville, NC 28117 and the packets shall be post marked by the application deadline of February 8th. NOTE: The application shall be sealed in an envelope addressed to Deputy Fire Chief Neel Brawley, and resumes will not be accepted in lieu of applications, but are welcomed as a part of the application submission. Applicants are required to include a North Carolina state training transcript in the sealed envelope.
